Exhibitor Application Rules:

1. Creativity at the Crossroads is designed exclusively for artists and crafters (herein rereferred to as "exhibitors") to sell their arts and wares. The Village has the right to reject any application that it feels does not meet the requirements of an artist or crafter (i.e. resellers, MLMs, etc.)
2. Exhibitors will be accepted on a first come, first serve basis upon submitting their application and being vetted to ensure they are the creator behind their submission. We will accept applications until spaces are full (approx. 50 exhibitors). Exhibitors will be notified of their application status by email.
3. Exhibitors will be an assigned 10' x 10' space. Exhibitors are responsible for providing their own tables, chairs and tents. No generators are permitted with respect to neighboring tables.
4. To be considered, the filled-out application along with the application fee of $25 must be provided at time of submittal. Checks can be made out to Village of North Aurora. Please do not mail cash. If you are not selected your application fee will be returned.
5. Applications can be dropped off or mailed to: Village of North Aurora, Attn: Creativity at the Crossroads, 25 East State Street, North Aurora, IL 60542. Please do not e-mail applications; they will not be considered.

Checking this box indicates you have read to and agree with the rules of Creativity at the Crossroads outlined above and that you represent the business as being its main artist or crafter and are hence authorized to sell such product.
